WOMAN DEMOCRAT IN BID FOR COUNCIL But no party ticket

Mrs. June Smith, secretary of the Lalor branch of the newly formed Australian Democrats Party, will contest the Altona Council elections, on August 27.

However Mrs. Smith, 35, will not be running on a party ticket. She said yesterday that she would contest the election as an independent.

I don't believe in party politics at local government level," she told the Altona Star.

Four candidates will

Holiday chance

The daily flight from Brisbane to Noosa Heads on Queensland's Sunshine Coast is a light aircraft trip to remember.

The car journey is about 100 miles but by air, you will be there in 25 minutes after flying over some incomparable scenery.

Two Footscray shopping centre customers will see it all for free soon thanks to a promotion organised by the STAR and Footscray traders.

Ansett Airlines are providing first-class return air travel from Melbourne to Brisbane for two.

Noosa Air will provide the commuter service and accommodation for 10 days at Noosa will be at the Pine Trees Resort Motel.

The trip is part of the Footscray stretch-a-dollar sale starting on August 23.

All traders participating in a sale publication to be distributed throughout the western suburbs on Friday, August 19, will have a supply of entry forms.

Entry is free. Just fill in your name and you could win the sunshine holiday.

The winner will be drawn on Saturday, August 27.

contest the three vacant positions on the council.

Cr. Steve Clement will be seeking re-election for his second term. But Cr. Ray Richards and Cr. Ian Stewart have both decided to stand down from the council.

Cr. Richards and Cr. Stewart have each served nine years on the council and are former mayors of Altona.

Cr. Richards put forward a number of reasons for his retirement from council.

"I think I've achieved most of the things that I set out to do ... I've had a pretty fair trot.

"Also, I think it's time I started spending more time with my family and there's also my job."

Cr. Richards is State manager of Ansell International.

Cr. Stewart said that he was leaving council, to "recharge my batteries".

"I've found that after so many years I've become stereo-typed in my thinking — the same problems keep coming up.

"Local government takes up all of your spare time.

"But that doesn't mean I'm going to give away Altona. I'll still retain a great interest in the area and the council."

Mrs. Smith, of Millers Road, Altona runs a snack bar in Sunshine.

Her husband, Russell Smith, was a Sunshine councillor when Sunshine council was sacked last year.

Mrs Smith has lived in Altona for 22 years.

Other candidates are Mr Graeme Hosken and Mr Hugh Graham.

Mr Hosken, 38, of Maon Avenue, Altona North, is the company secretary of Australian Synthetic Rubber in Altona West.

Married, he has three children and has lived in Altona for 17 years.

Mr Hugh Graham, 47, has lived in Altona for seven years and is the principal of the Footscray North Primary School.

Married, he lives in Upton Street, Altona, and has three children.

Bad week for Chappells

There was more than one Greg Chappell let down last week.

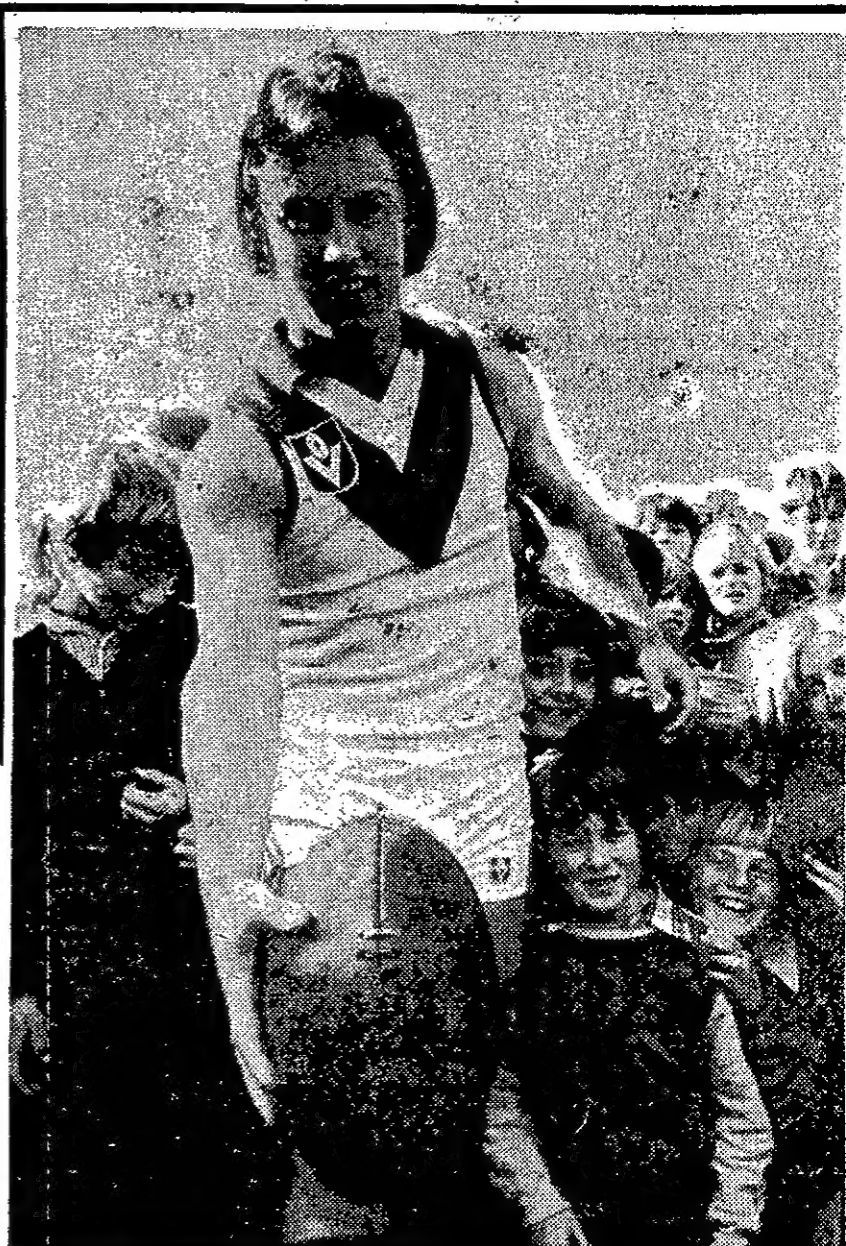

About a dozen members of the South Melbourne Football Club were supposed to hold a football clinic for the boys at Altona Primary School last Thursday morning.

More than 100 boys clutching autograph books waited at the school gate for their footy stars.

But only one man showed up, club promoter Gregg Chapple.

Gregg gave the boys a few tips on how to drop punt and hand-pass, but as one disappointed boy remarked "it's not the same, is it?"

Top apprentices

Two Williamstown Naval Dockyard apprentices were among nine youths from the west who topped this year's apprenticeship awards.

Mark Henry, 21, of Duke Street, Werribee, is the State's top apprentice coppersmith.

In a ceremony at Melbourne Town Hall last Friday, the Governor Sir Henry Winneke presented Mark with a citation and silver medal, for coming first in his theory and practice exams.

Peter Davis, 20, of Hammond Street, West Altona, won the Chamber of Manufacturers' L. H. Waite award for outstanding craftsmanship.

He is an apprentice joiner at the dockyards, and made a grandfather clock now on display in the Science Museum.

Mark is in his final year of a four-year apprenticeship and studies at RMIT.

His win was for a copper pipe with a right-angle bend to fit a flange for an exhaust pipe.

The unit will be installed on an oceanographic survey ship being built in the dockyards.

Mark is pictured (right) in the dockyard's pipe fabricating shop at work on a similar model.

The yard's apprentices supervisor, Mr. George Fulton, said he was "very proud of his boys."

He explained that apart from fashioning copper, a dockyard's coppersmith has to bend and form section piping for the ship's plumbing.

"It's a very special craft," said Mr. Fulton.

Peter works in the yard's carpentry division, where all ships' furniture is made.

Peter was at the Apprenticeship Board collecting his award, when the Star/Advertiser called at the dockyards last week.

Recreation

Williamstown's recreation officer, Ms. P. O'Dowd will be asked to attend all future meetings of the recreation committee.

Half an hour will be set aside at each meeting, so Ms. O'Dowd can discuss Williamstown's present and future recreational needs with the committee.

Williamstown Council adopted the committee's recommendation at its meeting last Monday.

Wake up, Laverton, fight saleyards!

SIR, — It appears from recent reports that the Sunshine Council and the Altona Council, are joining forces to protest against the siting of the abattoir at Laverton.

Where are the fighting forces of Laverton? Why hasn't the Werribee Council joined with the others to combat the invasion of noxious industries into OUR area?

Where is the committee that was selected to protest about the siting of the saleyards and abattoirs? Why is there so much apathy in Laverton? When are the people going to get off their back sides and fight to keep OUR Laverton area clean?

It would appear that Laverton residents lack the initiative to stand up and be counted among the protesters. They just want to sit back, close their eyes and hope that all will be well. Well, it won't.

To allow the saleyards and abattoirs to enter the area would set a precedent that would not be broken once they move in, leaving an open go for all noxious trades to move in without opposition.

Act now. Write a letter of protest to your council. See your councillors. Protest to the Town and Country Planning Appeals Tribunal or the Board of Works. At least, do something or suffer the consequences.

Stop the noxious trades or your children may "stop living" in Laverton.

Once the West Gate Bridge is opened (if it ever does open), there will be a definite rush for land in the western districts, housing developments, factories, etc.

Laverton should be the centre of these activities. The population will double (possibly up to 20,000 people within the next eight to 10 years). It will be too late then to say feebly: "Why didn't we do something years ago?"

— W. R. ARGYLE, Bladin Street, Laverton.

Williamstown Council will re-examine its by-law banning verandah posts on shop frontages.

Councillors decided this at their last meeting, on the recommendation of its conservation committee.

Aim of the re-examination is re-establish verandahs in historic and other appropriate areas.

The council will also examine the zoning of Nelson Place, Williamstown — one of the city's most historic areas.

The relevance of the Historic Building Act to Nelson Place and other old parts of Williamstown will also be examined.

Tree planting gets backing

Williamstown Conservation and Planning Society will take part in a public tree-planting day being planned by Williamstown Council

Council was told this at its last meeting in a letter from the society.

The offer has been referred to the council committee organising the day.

Schools and organisations have also been invited to take part.

● Loft Reserve

Extensions to the number one oval at Loft Reserve, West Newport, will not be made until summer.

West Newport Health and Recreation Centre asked the council to defer the proposed extensions because of the poor condition of the oval.

● No advertising

An advertising agency offer to put free litter bins in streets in return for the right to advertise, has been refused by the council.

The agency will be told council policy is opposed to proliferation of advertising signs in the city.

● Security plea

A request from the Bocce Bowling Club for permission to erect security fences around its boundaries has been deferred.

Council did this on the recommendation of its recreation committee. The request will be considered when a new club pavilion is finished.

● Drainage bad

A request for drainage from the back of a property in The Esplanade has been referred to the environment director, Mr. Garnet Price.

The request came from Mr. J. V. Gunthorpe, of 3 The Esplanade, who said footpath construction has caused a drainage problem on his property.

Mr. Price will report his findings to South Ward councillors.

● Uranium talks

Williamstown Conservation and Planning Society is considering holding a public meeting to discuss the uranium issue.

The council was told this in a letter from the society, which was referred to the town clerk, Mr. Trevor Sloan.

● Repairs OK

Council will not object to repairs to a building at 231 Nelson Place.

The Historic Buildings Preservation Council asked for comments on an application for the repairs.

Council was told the repairs did not involve structural alterations.

Five win scholarships

Five Altona High School students were presented with $100 encouragement scholarships on Friday by Mr. Max Chrimes, process manager at Altona Petrochemical Company.

The students are: Arthur Young, 16, who is taking a maths/science course in Form 5. He hopes to be a physicist.

Tony Bogovic, 16. Tony plans to be a doctor and is doing a Form 5 maths/science course.

Lyn Dryden, 16, who is doing humanities in Form 5 and hopes to be a teacher.

Jennifer Gerring, 16. She wants to be a social worker and is studying humanities in Form 5.

Sharon Ranger, 15, who is in Form 4 and plans to teach.

The scholarships were presented at a special school assembly.

They are awarded by the company each year.

This year, 16 students applied. The winners were chosen by Altona Petrochemical staff in consultation with Mr. Fraser McDonald, headmaster of Altona High.

Staying clean

The Altona Council has rejected a request from Williamstown Council to resign from the Clean Air and Environment Council of Victoria.

Williamstown council wrote to Altona, claiming that evidence presented by the Clean Air and Environment Council was incorrect.

It called on Altona and other councils and groups to withdraw from the Clean Air Council and stop funding.

Cr. Doug Grant said: "We as a council see no reason to withdraw from the Clean Air Council."

NEW CAR FOR THE MAYOR

Altona Council has agreed to buy a new mayoral car.

It was agreed at the last general purposes committee meeting to buy a Toyota CS Crown valued at $7196, from AML.

Social service

Cr. A. Shaw has once again been nominated by the council as their representative on the Victorian Council for Social Services.

Mr Shaw has been the council's representative for several years.

The council also paid their annual $50 subscription to the social service council.

No bees

The council has acted strongly against two residents who have been keeping bees in their backyard.

The occupiers of 65 and 67 Hansen Street, Altona, first had their applications to keep bees refused back in December last year, but a recent inspection by a council officer showed that both properties are still keeping bees.

The council gave notice that if the bees were not removed within seven days legal action would be taken.

Vaccine success

The Altona medical officer reported that the Rubella vaccination of school children has been successfully completed with a consent rate of 99.5 percent.

During May and June, ten sessions of immunisations were carried out and 938 doses were administered.

Two primary schools have been visited and all students checked for head lice. Those students found to be affected were assisted with treatment.

Library talks

Altona City librarian, Miss Paltridge, will represent the council at the 19th Biennial Conference in Tasmania in late August.

The conference will discuss the latest library information, plus the future development of library services.

Council agreed to pay the $290 costs.

Norman leads Altona Lions

Mr. Norman Woodcock (above) was installed as president of the Altona Lions Club during a dinner at Laverton last week.

Mr. Woodcock, a printer, came to Australia from England in 1956. He lives in Millers Road.

Other club officials installed were:

Secretary, Mr. Ron Saunders; treasurer, Mr. Peter Black; vice-presidents, Mr. Derek Craggs, Mr. Frank Jupp, Mr. Ken Edgar.

Plaques were presented to retiring secretary, Mr. Bob Gent and treasurer, Mr. Darrell Munn.

Retiring president, Mr. Jack O'Sullivan, was thanked for his efforts.

The club is raising $4000 for a hostel for spastic people to be built at Altona West.

Church record good, says candidate

The church, had "a rather strong and sterling record, which none can deny," Williamstown Council candidate, the Rev Laurance Slee, has said.

In a letter supporting his campaign for the Centre Ward seat to become vacant with the resignation of Cr. Charles Bates, Mr. Slee, discusses State-church welfare activities.

He writes:

"In recent years the church has handed over to the State a number of her concerns, partly because she had not enough money or manpower to manage these services.

"The State had the money and the expert manpower.

"Now I think we are seeing a swing to State-church participation in social welfare.

"The church must work with the State and the State must have the church's help. The church is part of the State, anyway.

"She circles the world, embracing many States, friend and foe together.

"In these permissive days the bigotry of church-State relationships may well be faint and feeble.

"Perhaps there is a place for a minister in local government. There is certainly a place for church laymen to be there."

Election day — if elections are necessary — is August 27.

No nomination has yet been received for the vacancy in Victoria Ward, caused by the death of Cr. Leo Hoffmann.

Other retiring councillors, Graeme Proctor and Tom Radford, have indicated they will seek re-election. So far there is no opposition to their seats.

Pavilion offer to council

An offer by Williamstown CYMS Football Club to finance building a pavilion at Fearon Reserve will be considered by Williamstown Council's general committee.

The offer was made in talks between club officials and the council's recreation committee.

The brick pavilion, 60 ft. x 24 ft wpi.d cpst abpit $35,000 if a club member was used as a contractor or about $50,000 if an outside contractor was employed, the committee has told the council.

It would be sited about 9 ft. north of the present pavilion at the reserve.

Council policy is that it provide one-third of the cost of pavilions.

But the club offered to finance the entire project rather than wait for this money to become available.

A co-operative society would be formed to raise the money and when the council's contribution was available, it would be used to reduce the co-operative's liability.

The recreation committee also considered plans drawn up by the council's envior

The recreation committee also considered plans drawn up by the council's environment department for a joint-use pavilion with Williamstown United Football Club, the council has been told.

But the CYMS delegates had said they preferred the plan submitted by themselves.

Copies of both plans will be circulated to councillors before the offer is discussed.

Still no talks about uranium

The Altona Council will still not hold a public meeting on uranium, despite two requests by local residents to do so.

At an earlier meeting, the council noted a letter from Senator Jean Melzer, and resolved that if a sufficient number of people wrote to the council requesting such a meeting, then they would consider it.

Since then, it was reported that two requests had been made, one phone call and one letter.

The letter, from Barry and Audrey Corbett, of Kookaburra Street, Altona, said:

"The uranium issue is presently being discussed fairly widely throughout the community at council sponsored meetings.

"However, as yet, no meeting on this vital question has been arranged for the citizens of Altona.

"I suggest that Altona residents also have a right to hear the facts on uranium and the associated issues, and from there decide for themselves.

"How about sponsoring a public debate on this issue."

The council decided that no action should be taken and also resolved that the Corbetts should be advised of a seminar on uranium being held at Monash University.

Beer drove him off the road

Two small cans, a 'tube' and about 10 glasses of beer meant driving licence cancellation for a Newport Railway Workshop employee, when he appeared at Footscray Court last Thursday.

This was the amount Ian Phillip Hales told police who stopped him he had drunk that day.

He said he had been drinking at work between about 9.45 am and 4.10 pm, Constable Francis Birchall, of the Traffic Operations Branch told the court.

Hales, of Railway Parade, Camberwell pleaded guilty to a charge of driving in Williamstown Road, Yarraville on December 23 last year with a blood-alcohol content over .05 per cent.

He pleaded guilty also to a charge of exceeding the 60 kph speed limit, followed Hales' car at 70 kph, about 7 pm and when he stopped him he produced a probationary licence.

His breath smelt of liquor and a Breathalyser test at Footscray police station later returned a reading of .160 per cent.

To Hales, Const. Birchall said the speed was the only fault he found with his driving.

In court, Hales said he thought by the time he drove he would have been below .05.

He agreed with Mr. William Guy, SM, he had "a fair bit to drink" that day.

Mr. Guy fined him $100 (or 10 days' imprisonment) on the .05 charge and $30 (three days) for speeding.

He cancelled his driving licence for 12 months and told Hales he fell into the category that was causing a great deal of public concern.

Bikie war is back

Remember the bikie gang warfare of the 60s with the studded leather jackets and chains?

Well it's coming back — but don't worry.

This time it won't be on the streets but on the stage at Footscray High School.

A musical play called Leo tells of the bikie gang era in Footscray and Williamstown during the mid-60s.

Not only does it show the thrills and violence of the times, but also the dramatic transformation that has since occurred to some of the bikie leaders.

The show will open on September 7 and run to September 17 (no shows on Sunday or Monday nights).

Phone bookings are now available on 398 3537.

During the next two weeks, members of the cast will be visiting churches in the Footscray-Williamstown-Altona area to tell people about the play and sing some of the songs from it.

Bernie grapples with problems of the young

Williamstown Outreach worker Bernie Ross (pictured) readily admits that he works with only a few of the young people in the area.

It's not that he wouldn't like to involve himself with more of the youths, it's just that he feels it wouldn't work out.

"I couldn't work effectively with a large number of people at once," he said.

"It's very difficult to relate with any true feeling to a large group — it has to be done on a one-to-one basis."

So, instead of trying to address masses of youths, Bernie spends a lot of time working with just a dozen or so kids.

"I don't believe you can move mountains," he said philosophically.

Bernie took over from John Harris (now at Footscray) as Williamstown's Outreach worker about three months ago.

"The kids have responded positively, they realise that you're a youth worker, but they're still very open."

Just what are the main problems facing kids these days?

"Well, there's a terrific number of kids unemployed for a start, but that's just one aspect."

"A lot of kids have family hassles, they all have emotional needs....

"Then you'll find that different groups have more problems. Kids in flats, for example, have the added problem of a lack of privacy."

Bernie has started several programmes in the area. The latest thing is day or week trips to the country.

"Certainly, we need more. I'd like to see a lot more things happening. There should be more coffee shops and dances for a start."

"There is just not enough things for the kids to get involved in around here," he said.

Looking ahead, Bernie sees his role as mainly that of instigating various projects and then moving on.

"We're funded through the YMCA by a Federal grant and when that ends in another 15 months we probably won't get another grant."

"I'd like to think that the projects we've set up will keep going when we leave."

"I think community responsibility is the real key. I'd like to hand projects over to the community and let the mothers and the dads become involved."

Smiling grimly, he ended by saying: "Of course, for that to happen we need a few parents to get out at night and decide that they want to help."

Call for Kalparrin

Williamstown's Kalparrin Club — it's Aboriginal and means to carry the load — has launched a campaign to attract new members.

Run by women to raise funds for the Williamstown Hospital, club members say Kalparrin is an ideal way for those many newcomers to Williamstown, to make new friends and help the community.

With informality the keynote, the club meets on the second Wednesday of each month at Williamstown Hospital, for a cup of tea, a chat and to organise functions.

These include fashion parades, wine and cheese tastings, dinners, car trials, theatre nights and luncheons.

"We try to organise functions so the husbands can come along too," president Mrs. Pam Webster (pictured) said last week.

"There are so many new families moving here, who would probably like to join Kalparrin but didn't know we existed."

Formed nine years ago

by a group of local businessmen's wives, the club now has 30 members, including housewives and professional women, and has raised thousands of dollars for the hospital.

For details, ring Mrs. Webster on 391 1854 or secretary, Lyn Reid on 397 7485.

Mrs. Webster can arrange transport for anyone interested in joining.

JOBLESS ON FILM

A film about unemployment is now being produced in Williamstown.

Starring Newport and Williamstown's jobless youth, the film is a joint venture of staff at Williamstown High School, local youth workers, CES officers, and Williamstown Council.

It depicts mock-interview situations, a group discussion about unemployment and interviews with staff at the local unemployment office and employers.

The producers hope the film will be used by schools, regional youth schemes, the Commonwealth Employment Service and any other organisation concerned at the present unemployment situation.

It should be released soon.

Newport: referendum unjust, illogical

SIR. — With respect to Cr. Charles Bates as a good Christian man, it must be conceded that a huge, technological, scientific project of a power-house fuelled by scarce, expensive oil and gas (perhaps a nuclear station when those fuels run out), cannot be decided by laymen when voting at a referendum which would be neither just nor logical. A power station is not being opposed, only the siting of it close to the heart of a great metropolis.

There are other sites incomparably safer.

The scientists with no axe to grind have said "No."

Unionists, conservationists and others who recognise the knowledge and integrity of scientists say "No."

A power house means more oil tanks, and a great potential danger to a population, sooner or later.

Are men and women only to be regarded as "hands" to big industries that settle midst their homes?

If profit and convenience are to have priority over health and humanity then all who have moral courage and good principles must protect for their own sakes and for those who lack the resolution and intelligence to do so.

— (Mrs.) DOROTHY WAIGHT (The Strand, Williamstown).

Yeats' classic in Footscray

The W.B. Yeats classic play, "The Player Queen," opens for a brief season at the Footscray Community Arts Centre (87A Balarat Rd.) on Saturday August 20.

Directed by Neil Richards for Crews Dramatic Company, the play revolves around a troupe of mediaeval players, a drunken poet and a wayward wife who perform for a queen who has never been seen. The performance will incorporate "The Only Jealousy of Emer," an exploration of Yeats' knowledge of legend, magic and the world of the spirit. The Crews' production will run from August 20 to August 24 inclusive and on Friday, August 26 and Sunday, August 28, starting at 8 pm.

Admission is $3. Bookings: Robert Hughes (68 4933).

Camera club

Williamstown Camera Club members are reminded to take their cameras and tripods to the next meeting on Thursday.

There will be a practical night with a model and items for those interested in still life photography.

Meetings are held in the Willy Coffee House on the first and third Thursdays, at 7.45 pm.

For more information, ring secretary, Neil Leicester, on 391 3926.

TPI cards

Winners at the last TPI social club cards afternoon, at the Manchester Unity Hall, Footscray on August 4, were Mrs. A. McKenzie and Mr. W. Knell.

Next cards afternoon will be on August 18. A combined meeting will be held tomorrow (August 10) in the same hall.

The club offers sympathy to the families of the late Mr. W. Braddish and the late Mr. P. Jowett, to Mrs. Williams for the loss of her daughter and to Mr. and Mrs. A. Rogers over the death of their son.

Elders for New church

Elders for Hudson Road, Spotswood, Uniting Church have been elected. They are Mesdames V. Connell, N. Jones and J. Shevels.

Parish councillors from the church are Mrs. M. Calway and Miss D. Yewers.

BORN AGAIN

No one can be saved unless he is born again by the power of God's Spirit. The Lord Jesus says in John 3:7, "Ye must be born again." The necessity is absolute — "Ye must be born again" — to see the Kingdom of Heaven. Reader are you born again?

Salvation is obtained through a definite receiving of the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour. The instant you take Him as your Saviour from sin, salvation is an accomplished fact. "As many as received Him to THEM gave the power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe in His Name." John 1:12.

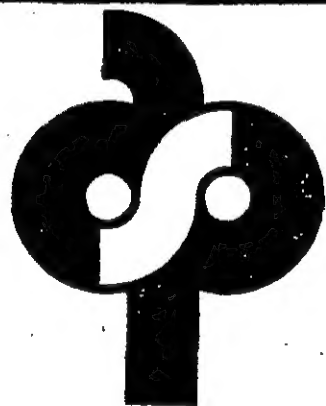

The most awful and eternal regret of the lost will be to find that they are not lost because they were sinners, but because they refused to receive Jesus Christ as their Lord and Saviour. Remember, "For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved." Romans 10:13.

— We would encourage you to write for a free salvation booklet entitled, "What must I do to be saved?" or for further counsel contact —

THE AGE

Seagulls boot 21 and still lose

The Seagulls scored 21 goals on Sunday but the big score wasn't enough to beat Sandringham. They kicked 30 goals.

The Seagulls score of 21.15 (141) was the second highest for the day, but the side is now in a spot.

Next week, the Gulls meet Preston at home and Preston players have won their last four games.

The following week, Williamstown meets Caulfield.

The Gulls easily won the first round against Caulfield but, Preston's final game is against Brunswick, a side they easily beat in the first half of the season.

Dominic de van der Scheweren and Brian Lowe opened Sunday's scoring with three goals each.

John Fanning was rucking well but the Sandringham forwards were busy and had eight goals on the board.

It was soon obvious that this would be a game for the forwards.

At half-time, the Gulls were down 17 points. The second quarter was even, with both sides kicking six goals.

Goals from Gardner and Nash helped bridge the gap when play resumed but Sandringham goaled again before Gardner booted another major.

Then Mark Cross kicked another goal and the scores were level.

But not for long as Sandringham pulled away with three quick goals.

The game looked bleak as the final quarter progressed but three goals from de van der Scheweren added to the tally which is the biggest score the Seagulls have had for the season.

Final score: Sandringham 30.20 (200) d. Williamstown 21.15 (141).

Goals: de van der Scheweren, Brian Lowe 6, John Nash 3, Mark Cross, Peter Gardner 2, Andy Donnelly, Robert Percy.

BEST
John Fanning again starred in the ruck and he could have a chance in the Liston Trophy.

Dominic de van der Scheweren marked and kicked well and Brian Lowe was the team's most versatile player.

Bob Percy was a trier and John Nash fought to get his three goals. Andrew Donnelly did well at centre half forward and Neil Courtot was the only defender worth mentioning.

Williamstown Central Motors Award: John Fanning 3, Dominic de van der Scheweren 2, Robert Tinsley 1.

Progressive voting: John Fanning increases his lead to 17. Peter Gardner 11, Mal Allen 10, Brian Lowe, Frank Porevina 9, Mick Mahoney, Mark Cross, Greg Tweedley 7, Robert Percy 5, Dominic de van der Scheweren 4, Peter Kerr 3, Bruce Alexander 2, Daryl Dixon, Alan Kennedy, Robert Tinsley.

SECONDS
The seconds lost their 16th game in a row Sandringham beat them 23.31

142 point margin to West

West Newport scored with ridiculous ease against Laverton at home on Saturday and won by a margin of 142 points.

West had a 57-point margin at half-time and were never threatened.

Score: West 26.25 (181) d. Laverton 5.9 (39).

West's best: Cavanagh, W. Chitty, Durham, Farrar, Parker, Thopson. Goals: Cavanagh 9, Leighton 8, Saunders 2, Bunting, Carrington, R. Chitty, Durham, B. Jones, Menzies, Thompson.

The senior second division team scored an even bigger win over Laverton leaving the opposition back at the starting post.

Score: West 27.22 (184) d. Laverton 4.5 (29). Goals: Vanstone 8, Browne-Kerr 5, Macey 4, Culter, Dean 3, Busbridge, S. Garlick, Is-ton No. 2 10-1, Ordance mailiw, Mayes.

Younger sides in the finals

By Alan Burkitt

The Altona City under 13 and under 15 teams won their way into Sunday's grand finals with convincing scores in the preliminary finals at the weekend.

The under 11 team missed out by only five points in a low scoring game against Werribee.

The under-13s will play Williamstown Juniors in the grand final, and the under 15s oppose Werribee.

On the weekend's showing, both teams must have a good chance of bringing a junior pennant back to Grant Reserve, the first since Peter Carton's under 13s in 1973.

The under-15 win was a magnificent one against the more favored Laverton side.

The boys took a quarter to settle down. But late in the second term, the Vikings kicked three quick goals to put them one point up at half-time.

The second half saw them playing with great determination. The bigger boys like Glen Burnett and Wayne Smith were holding their overhead marks and the smaller boys were charging into the packs fearlessly.

Laverton were attacking when the final bell rang but they had left their run too late.

Scores: Altona City 8-10 (58) d. Laverton 6-7 (43).

Best: G. Burnett, W.

Smith, C. Money, C. Brown, J. Robertson, M. Scott.

Goals: Smith 3, W. Mus-chialli 2, B. Scholes, A. Rocco, D. O'Brien.

UNDER 13s

"Tom's Terrors" also started slowly and were down at quarter time but the goal that put Werribee in front turned out to be their only one for the game.

A strong ruck combination led by David Krol and Peter Davies, and a solid defence with Colin Skerry and Gary Howarth starring on the half back line made it hard for the Tigers to score.

Roddy Johnston, as small as he is, got tons of kicks by getting in front and he continually drove the ball forward.

At three quarter time, the Vikings had an eight point lead.

In the final term, rover Colin Burkitt kicked four great goals to seal the game.

The boys could teach their senior team mates a lot about tapping the ball forward at all times whether on the ground or in the air.

Scores: Altona City, 6.5 (35) d. Werribee 1.2 (8).

Best: Unfair to single anyone out from a great team effort. Goals: Burkitt 4, C. Paten 2.

UNDER 11s

"Heyme's Hopefuls" lost when they failed to play from in front of their Werribee opponents. At times there were several Tigers loose in the goal area with Viking backmen well out of position.

Even so the difference was only five points and the boys never gave in. They attacked for most of the final term but were unable to get that elusive goal.

Scores: Altona City, 1.8 (14) lost to Werribee 2.7 (19).

Best: P. Davies, D. White, R. Skinner, G. Matthews, S. Gillard. Goal: Gillard.

UNDER 17s
The Altona boys tried hard against the strong Werribee side and could have been a lot closer only for some poor kicking for goal.

Scores: Altona City 3.9 (27) lost to Werribee 12.9 (81).

Best: A. Hitch, F. Demarsi, K. Vogan, N. Con-don, P. Stephens, P. Heyen.

Goals: Vogan, A. Hud-son, Heyen.

The Viking Seniors and Reserves had a buy in the F.D.L. and should be fresh when they try and repeat their only A grade win for the year at St. Albans this week.

Friday night's 'sopa dance' was a social success even though not as well attended as in other years. One disappointing aspect was the lack of support from the players themselves. They fail to realise that these social events are run for their benefit.

Prizes donated by local and city business houses helped add to the glamor of the night. Donations came from the following:

Footscray Singer, Woolworths, Hoyt's and Village Drive-Ins, Good-year Altona, 'C Side' Auto Parts, Merritts Timber, Phillip Morris, Prima Meats Ken Kims Sports Store, Hubbles Self Service, Cheryle's Shoppe, Margaret's Gq In Gear, R. & M. Thompson (butchers), Pier St. Meat Supply, R. J. Gilbertson, Marchants, with special thanks to Mal Russell, Frank Knight and Mrs. Judy Tisdale.

The Singer sewing machine was won by Miss Lynne Newell of Parkdale.
